The Representation of the People (Postal Voting for Local Government Elections) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2021

1. The Representation of the People (Postal Voting for Local Government Elections) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2021 was laid before the Scottish Parliament on 14 September 2021 and referred to the Standards, Procedures and Public Appointments Committee (SPPA Committee).
2. The regulations amend the deadline for an elector to seek a replacement for a spoilt or lost postal ballot paper from 5pm to 10pm on the day of poll. The instrument amends the Representation of the People (Postal Voting for Local Government Elections) (Scotland) Regulations 2007 (“the 2007 Regulations”, SSI 2007/263). The 2007 Regulations have previously been amended by the Representation of the People (Postal Voting for Local Government Elections) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2009 and the Representation of the People (Postal Voting for Local Government Elections) (Scotland) Amendment Regulations 2016. The 2007 Order sets out the procedures for the issue and receipt of postal ballot papers at Local Government elections.
3. The proposed changes would bring the practice for Local Government into line with that of the Scottish Parliament election and therefore standardise the 10pm deadline for replacement of spoilt or lost postal ballot papers. The Scottish Government considers that the additional time will assist in maximising turnout. In terms of section 5 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994 (as amended by the Scottish Elections (Dates) Act 2016), the next ordinary Local Government election is scheduled to take place on 5 May 2022.

The Scottish Local Government Elections Amendment Order 2021

4. The Scottish Local Government Elections Amendment Order 2021 was laid before the Scottish Parliament on 14 September 2021 and referred to the Standards, Procedures and Public Appointments Committee (SPPA Committee).
5. The purpose of this instrument is to make a number of changes to the rules which set out how Scottish Local Government elections should be run. Changes are made in the following areas:
 - Decisions as to the validity of nomination papers;
 - Issue of official poll cards and notifications;
 - Filling of last vacancies;
 - Limitation of election expenses;
 - Publication of time and place for inspection of returns and declarations;
 - Meaning of election expenses; and
 - Power to amend Parts 1 and 2 of schedule 4B to the Representation of the People Act 1983.
6. The instrument amends the Scottish Local Government Elections Order 2011 (the “2011 Order”), the Representation of the People Act 1983 (the “1983 Act”) and the Representation of the People Act 2000 (the “2000 Act”) to reflect changes to the rules and procedures for the running of Local Government elections in Scotland. In terms of section 5 of the Local Government etc. (Scotland) Act 1994 (as amended by the Scottish Elections (Dates) Act 2016), the next ordinary Local Government election is scheduled to take place on 5 May 2022.
